WHILE in San Francisco the party will be entertained at the Hotel Manx. The Bulletin will furnish First Class Transportation and Hotel Accommodations for these Five ladies, who will be selected by the Bulletin readers in a

Grand Double Popular Voting Contest

This contest is open to every woman of good character in Hawaii

HOW TO ENTER THE VOTING CONTEST—All that is needed are a pair of scissors, a lead pencil and energy

THE FIRST thing to do—Cut out the nomination blank, which will be found in each issue of The Evening Bulletin. Fill in the blanks with your name, etc. If you wish to nominate yourself, or with the name of anyone else whom you may choose to nominate. Be very careful to write plainly, so that there can be no possibility of an error being made. There is no doubt that many contestants will be careless in making out their nominations and subscriptions, though we wish to avoid it as far as possible, and will ask the co-operation of those interested in the contest. Please bear this in mind when securing subscriptions to The Bulletin.

THE SECOND thing to do—Send or bring the nomination blank to the Contest Manager of The Evening Bulletin, who will give you credit for 3000 votes toward winning one of the prizes, and will send you a receipt book to be used when securing subscriptions to this paper. A representative of The Bulletin will explain the proposition in detail, if you don't thoroughly understand it, and will render you any assistance possible. You must know that we are anxious to have you in the race, otherwise we would not spend so much time and use so much space in talking to you about it. We shall keep this up until we have you interested, either for yourself or for one of your friends.

REMEMBER—

The Chaperone will be paid a salary from the time she leaves Honolulu until she returns with the party.

ACT NOW

Cut out and fill out and send in nomination blank.

The candidate who is started in at once has a decided advantage.

THE THIRD thing to do—As soon as you are nominated, get out among your friends; get them to subscribe for The Evening or Weekly Bulletin giving you their votes (vote scale will be found in each issue of the paper). Send the subscriptions to the Contest Manager, together with the amount covering each subscription. For five-year subscriptions to the Daily Bulletin you are allowed a big vote bonus. A few of these subscriptions will put you so high up in the list that you won't want to allow any one to beat you. There is no reason that you should, either. All you need to do is to keep right on working. Pay no attention to how many votes some one else has; look after your own candidacy, and thereby set a good example for the other contestants.

THE FOURTH thing to do—As soon as you have secured one subscription, go after another. This does not mean that you will be compelled to lose any time which should be spent looking after your business, whatever that may be. You are to understand that this work may be done during your leisure moments, though even if you were to spend your time doing nothing but securing subscriptions to The Bulletin, the reward for your labor would quite suffice to repay you many times over. Think what a wonderful profit would be yours were you to win one of these trips—that six weeks' summer trip to Yosemite and California, with stopovers at the principal cities and sight-seeing points. Points that attract tourists from all over the entire world.

You may, if you wish, nominate candidates for both a Trip and Chaperone Contestant.

THE YOSEMITE VALLEY TRIP

The world's most famous and wonderful valley, with its solid, perpendicular granite walls towering on either side for thousands of feet, can now be easily reached by elegantly equipped trains and a short ride in comfortable stages. The most noted writers and poets of the age have tried to picture in words the wonders and beauties of Yosemite, but have found their glowing descriptions fall short of explaining the actual conditions that it is the universal decision that "no tongue or pen can tell." Think of a large volume of water, foaming, and in its fury, pitching over a precipice six or seven times higher than the tallest building in the world. If five such buildings as the Masonic Temple, in Chicago, were placed one on top of the other, and on top of them should be placed Washington's monument (555 feet), and on its capstone should be placed the Eiffel Tower 984 feet, from Glacier Point, one would still have to look down two hundred feet to the top of the Eiffel Tower, and then if they were all placed on top of Glacier Point one standing on Clouds' Rest would have to look down nearly two hundred feet to see the top of the Tower. Thus is given a faint description of what one sees in Yosemite Valley.

The young woman who receives the highest number of votes in District No. 1 will be given first-class transportation to Yosemite National Park and hotel accommodations in the park and San Francisco.

The young woman in District No. 2 will receive the same trip, with the same accommodations as the one in District No. 1.

The young woman in District No. 3 receiving the highest number of votes will receive the same trip as the young women in Districts Nos. 1 and 2.

The chaperone will receive the same trip and accommodations as the young ladies, and in addition will receive a monthly salary while in charge of the party.

RECREATIONS

THE TEMPTATION.

As tabloid drama in which the absence of padding heightens the effect of a dramatic tale simply and interestingly told. A young clerk is sent to the city with a check for the payroll. There is a blizzard raging and he returns after the factory is closed. He would have taken the money straight to the factory without thought but with so much money in his own house the idea comes to him to appropriate it for himself, so he leaves the house and has his wife watch the money. He gives her his hunting rifle. After he has gone a tramp, made desperate by the storm, is permitted to sleep after he is warm. The clerk returns in disguise. The tramp comes to the wife's relief and overpowers the intruder. The wife is stunned when she raises the mask to discover her husband's face. Her husband's penitence brings forgiveness.

VICTOR HUGO AGAIN.

"Fantine" another dramatization from Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables" is to be shown at the Park Theater on Monday and Tuesday nights. Anyone who has read Hugo's works has found pleasure and profit in "Les Miserables," a classic considered by many to be his best work. All of these subjects for the motion pictures are so thoroughly and intensely dramatic that many persons find more enjoyment in a "picture house" than in many theaters and theatrical productions. The action in "Fantine" is immediate, essentially French, and complete to the minutest detail. Wallace and Way are holdovers, and their act will be materially changed. Mr. Way will do his crayon work Monday and Tuesday nights. The program for Tuesday night will be appropriate to the event of which it is the anniversary.

THE EMPIRE.

Those who did not take the tip and see "L'Assommoir" at the Empire missed a silent dramatic treat. Tomorrow night there is to be a change of program, and "A Change of Heart" will be a feature film. It is a subject which shows the result of evil associations and their contaminating influence. "The Masterpiece" tells the story of the monk who devoted his life to the work of the brotherhood, but who held a place in his heart for the one he loved before he donned the somber garb of a novice. "Papa's Hat" is a series of delightful child pictures centered in the life of a little one who found pleasure in her father's opera hat. It is a very interesting and pleasing picture. Eva Alva and Harry Will will continue for another week in their inimitable stunts.

HOLIDAY PROGRAM.

The Novelty Theater has a special

DOYLE GUEST AT DUTCH DINNER

Elks Side Show Committee In Costume Are Hosts

There will be a notable gathering at the Union Grill at five o'clock this party who will foregather there, will include the entire membership of the Side Show Committee who have been instrumental in the preparation of the Famous Elks' Trail, which is to herald the advent of the Floral Parade.

A Dutch treat has been arranged, and Mine Host George Lycourus has been authorized to go the limit. It is the intention that the score or more members whose efforts in behalf of making the Elks' Carnival a success, arranged holiday program for tonight and tomorrow night. The moving pictures will show patriotic scenes and the music will be appropriate. The vaudeville portion of the program will offer some new songs and dances and in all visitors to the show will spend an enjoyable hour at the Novelty.

will appear in carnival costume. J. Walter Doyle is the guest of honor at the gathering this evening.

The Trail will be thrown open to the public at seven o'clock this evening and from that time on the fun will be fast and furious. The Columbia Park Boys have kindly consented to act as an escort for the Elks' committee, and they will blaze the way from the Grill to the Trail with melody from their well organized band.

It is especially desired that every member of the Side Show Committee be present at the Grill promptly at five o'clock this evening.

Among those who will be present will be A. E. Murphy, chairman; Lorrin Andrews, A. R. Cunha, Jos. H. Conen, Wm. H. Hoogs, C. B. Hall, Raymond Irwin, Raymond W. Jones, H. E. Murray, Geo. A. Martin, Thos. A. O'Brien, Wade Warren Thayer, C. D. Wright, C. F. Waterman, W. S. Witte, F. E. Howes, Geo. J. O'Neill, L. A. Sawallish, C. A. Mackintosh, Nelson B. Lansing, D. H. Davis, N. B. Young, J. F. Doyle, Jas. P. Lynch, Wm. McClellan.

The Columbia Boys had a great time out at the Outrigger Club yesterday afternoon as they paddled about in canoes, swam and tried surf-board stunts to their heart's content. The house committee entertained the boys well, and Huiacae was cheered for the invitation he had extended to the ladies.
